eSubmission Web Client v 3.7.0.1 – new functionality

Changes introduced in v3.7.0.1

Human and Veterinary domains;
New reminder that the eAF should only be modified and locked using Adobe Reader.

For Human procedures, the required submission format is eCTD (mandatory for all centrally authorised, DCP, MRP and nationally authorised (NP) products). More information on the mandatory use of eCTD please see eSubmission website

Note: Applicants are reminded that eAFs should be edited and signed using Adobe Reader. Using Adobe Acrobat Pro may lead to rejection of the submission. More information can be found in the eAF website.

Contains Request for change of Applicant (SD-280258)

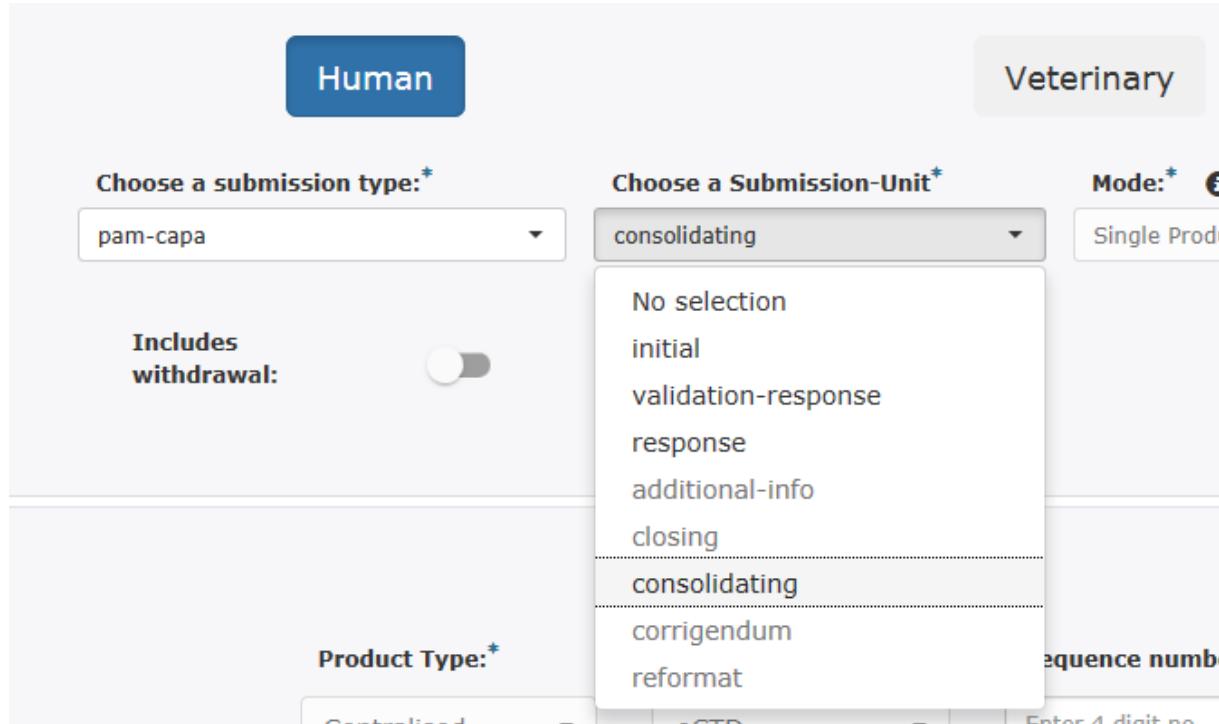

Human and Veterinary domains; 'Contains Request for change of Applicant' tick box is replaced with mandatory Yes / No radio buttons

This screenshot shows the 'Human' domain form. At the top, there are two buttons: 'Human' (highlighted in blue) and 'Veterinary' (greyed out). Below the buttons are four dropdown menus: 'Choose a submission type:' with 'maa' selected, 'Choose a Submission-Unit:' with 'response' selected, 'Choose a Submission description:' with 'No selection' selected, and 'Mode:' with 'Single Product' selected. At the bottom, there is a label 'Contains Request for change of Applicant:' followed by three radio buttons: 'Yes' (selected), 'No', and 'No'.

This screenshot shows the 'Veterinary' domain form. At the top, there are two buttons: 'Human' (greyed out) and 'Veterinary' (highlighted in blue). Below the buttons are four dropdown menus: 'Choose a submission type:' with 'maa' selected, 'Choose a Submission-Unit:' with 'response' selected, 'Choose a Submission description:' with 'No selection' selected, and 'Mode:' with 'Single Product' selected. At the bottom, there is a label 'Contains Request for change of Applicant:' followed by three radio buttons: 'Yes', 'No', and 'No'.

The screenshot displays the 'Human' domain interface. At the top, there are two tabs: 'Human' (active) and 'Veterinary'. Below the tabs, there are three main sections: 'Choose a submission type:' with a dropdown menu showing 'pam-capa'; 'Choose a Submission-Unit:' with a dropdown menu open, listing options: 'No selection', 'initial', 'validation-response', 'response', 'additional-info', 'closing', 'consolidating' (highlighted), 'corrigendum', and 'reformat'; and 'Mode:' with a dropdown menu showing 'Single Prodi'. Below these sections, there is a toggle switch for 'Includes withdrawal:' which is currently turned off. At the bottom, there is a 'Product Type:' dropdown menu with 'Centralized' selected, and a 'sequence number' field with a placeholder 'Enter 4 digit no'.

Human domain only: It is now possible to submit consolidating sequences for PAM procedures. It is also possible to indicate if the consolidation sequence includes a withdrawal.
